Dear Family, Your child is learning to use capital letters and punctuation correctly.
 When we need more than one word to say what we mean, we connect words together to make a sentence. A sentence starts with a capital letter. A sentence ends with a punctuation mark, like a . or ? or ! Write some sentences about your friends in school.
 When you finish writing your sentences, go back and check. Did you start each sentence with a capital letter? Did you remember to use a punctuation mark at the end of each sentence? Read your sentences out loud to someone in your family.

Dear Family, Your child is learning that words in a sentence must agree.

- Look at the following sentences:
 - 1. The man walks down the street.
 - 2. Many men walk down the street.

In Sentence 1, there is only one man. The word that tells what he does, walks, must have an "s" at the end. In Sentence 2, there are a lot of men. The word that tells what they do, walk, should not have an "s" at the end.

- Here are two more sentences:
 - 1. My cat sits in the sun.
 - 2. Ten cats sit in the sun.
- Do you see how it works?
- Write two sentences of your own on the back of this page. In Sentence 1, tell what one person or thing does.
 In Sentence 2, tell what many persons or things do.
